Henley Archaeological and Historical Group

We aim to encourage research and further the study of Archaeology, Vernacular Architecture and History of our town and the surrounding area; to provide a vehicle for the publication of members' research and a forum for all those similarly interested

Regular meetings are held for Lectures and Business information on the first floor of the King's Arms Barn on the second Tuesday of the month between October and June.

Our Group has a library of books and pamphlets, research studies by past members and maps of the area available for consultation or loan to members and any member wishing to consult these documents should contact a Committee member in order to arrange access.

In addition to Lectures there are outings to places of interest, usually two or three times a year, Newsletters are published several times a year with updates of activities and news of events.

Our Journal is distributed to major Libraries and is usually published once a year or when ever sufficient articles of research or articles of interest have been assembled.

The Membership subscription is £20 for two people living at the same address and £12 for a single person
Visitors are welcome to the Lectures, at a cost of £4

New members are always warmly welcomed.

Pam Syrett. Chair of HAHG.
